

Fire in the Pacific Northwest – Past, Present, & Future

Implications for ecology, operations, and restoration west of the Cascade Mountains

WEDNESDAY, May 24 th
12:00pm	Registration Available outside of Discover AB
1:00pm	Keynote - Fire Policy: Crosscutting Issues of Fire Policy Morgan Varner, US Forest Service
2:30pm	BREAK
	Prairie, Grassland, Meadow, Woodland Discover AB	Conifer Forests Alder
3:00pm	Fire Regime: Past, Present, Future: Addressing Multiple Perspectives Ed Alverson, The Nature Conservancy	Fire Regime: Past, Present, Future: Addressing Multiple Perspectives Tom Spies, US Forest Service
3:45pm	Ecology: Fires effect on plants Sarah Hamman, Center for Natural Lands Management	Ecology: Fires effect on plants Steve Acker, US Forest Service
4:30pm	Current Lay of the Land: Key Issues Max Pinkus-Neilson, Portland State University	Current Lay of the Land: Key Issues Mike Cloughesy, Oregon Forest Resources Institute
5:30pm	END
6:00pm	Reception
THURSDAY, May 25 th
7:30am	Registration, Continental Breakfast Available outside of Discover AB
	Prairie, Grassland, Meadow, Woodland Discover AB	Conifer Forests Alder
8:30am	Restoration Examples and Operations	Restoration Examples and Operations
	Oak Woodland Amanda Stamper, The Nature Conservancy	Long Return Interval & Stand Replacement Josh Halofsky, Washington Department of Natural Resources Dan Danato, Washington Department of Natural Resources
	Dry/Wet Prairie John Richardson, JBLM Prescribed Fire and Mason McKinley, Center for Natural Lands Management Jeremiah Maghan, Willamette Valley National Wildlife Refuge	Mixed Severity Fires Jane Kertis, US Forest Service
		Low Severity & Frequent Fires Darren Borgias, The Nature Conservancy
10:00am	BREAK
10:30am	Dry Meadows Bart Johnson, University of Oregon Molly Juillerat, US Forest Service	Landscape Objectives with Multiple Fire Regimes Jerry Franklin, University of Washington
		Using Wildfire for Multiple Objectives Todd Rankin, National Park Service
11:30am	Panel Discussion	Panel Discussion
12:30pm	LUNCH
1:30pm	Facilitated Group Wrap-up	Facilitated Group Wrap-up
2:20pm	Ending Plenary – John Bailey, Oregon State University
3:00pm	END of program. Safe travels!	